

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Wayne Dougherty graduated from college when he was 53 years old, earning his Bachelor of Science Degree from the University of South Dakota in Allied Health with a major in Alcohol and Drug Abuse Studies, and a minor in Psychology, and will retire from the Department of Human Services Division of Alcohol and Drug Abuse on June 8, 2011; and

Whereas, In 1989, Wayne became the supervisor of the Chemical Dependency Counseling program at the Springfield Correctional Facility. After reorganization in 1996, Wayne became the supervisor of all adult male corrections programs; and,

Whereas, Wayne has been involved in the development and delivery of services including: Assessments, Prevention/Education, Crisis Intervention, Outpatient Services, Intensive Outpatient Treatment, Native American Specific Treatment, Co-Occurring Treatment, and Referrals. Since Wayne started his career, 40,003 inmates have been imprisoned. A large part of these inmates have had their lives impacted by Wayne in one way or another; and,

Whereas, Wayne earned his Prevention Specialist certification from the South Dakota Certification Board of Drug and Alcohol Professionals, and was also trained as a Case Presentation Evaluator; and,

Whereas, Wayne resides with his wife, Judy, in Springfield, and plans to enjoy more time hunting, fishing, gardening, camping, and spending time with his grandchildren and great-grandchildren; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to honor this outstanding South Dakotan on the occasion of his retirement:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim June 8, 2011, as

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Sixteenth Day of May in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Eleven.
